BUDGET DISCUSSION

For the Budget Year 2019

As management of Baldwin County, Georgia, we offer readers of our 2019 budget proposal this narrative overview and analysis of the proposed 2019 Baldwin County budget. We encourage citizens to read the information presented here in conjunction with the County's budget documents, which follow this narrative.

BUDGET HIGHLIGHTS

- The County has separated unincorporated services from the General Fund and placed those services in a Special Service District. Those services total $3,103,500 for 2019.
- The County has budgeted $21,090,000 in the General Fund for 2019 compared to $24,396,000 in the General Fund for 2018. In 2018 the unincorporated services were included. The 2019 budget compared to 2018, with unincorporated services included, is a reduction of $202,500 for unincorporated and countywide services.
- Management received a total request for the unincorporated services, which include Fire Administration, CSH Fire, Animal Control, Building Department, Culture and Recreation (Library-unincorporated), of $3,494,300. The amount presented in this budget is $3,103,500. Management cut $390,800 from the amounts requested by the departments.
- Management received a total request for the countywide services of $21,437,690. The amount presented in this budget is $21,090,000. Management cut $347,690 from the amounts requested by the departments and elected officials.
- Charges for services are now separated between Unincorporated General Services Fund and General Fund.
- The county will have 340 Full Time employees. This is an increase of two from 2018. The additional two employees are for Building Inspection. The county is now saving money by doing the work in-house versus contracting out the services, which the county had done for years.
